

Hello AGGIES and HORNETS – I’m at a meeting today and you have a guest teacher. Please make sure you sit in your assigned seats. Make sure you personally do everything you can to make today feel respectful and enjoyable for the guest teacher.

Today you will be working on the Chapter 4 Review problems.

- One person from your group will get two textbooks when the guest teacher asks each group to get books. If your group has five members, you will also ask the guest teacher for a Chapter 4 Review problem packet.
- Please work individually on the Chapter Review problems so you have a realistic idea of which concepts you understand and which concepts you need help with.
- You can use the manila folder as a privacy/concentration screens.
- You have the full period to work on the Chapter 4 Review problems.
- When you finish the Review problems please read until the end of class. (Remember to be summarizing or reflecting about your reading in your Reading Log.)

I’m sure class will go well; however, I’ve left the following for the guest teacher in case there are any problems:

Student _____ Date _____ Period _____

Unfortunately, this student’s disruptive behavior has reached a level where it is difficult for the guest teacher to carry out Mr. Willmarth’s lesson plan with the rest of the class. Please keep the student in the office for the remainder of the period. Mr. Willmarth will have a conversation with the student and Mr. Ward tomorrow and together they will decide on any additional consequences.

Thank you – M. Willmarth
